

Greetings!

I live, create, research and document. Working with archives, reportage, art photography - all of this helps me to feel important and fulfill my photographic mission for scholars, artists and the public.

In my projects, I explore the themes of memory (of the past) and futurism (of the future). My art is born out of personal experience and the historical context in which I live.